Whereas, Kala Eydman of Saint Louis has attained considerable distinction as Director of Communication Arts (Pre-kindergarten through Twelfth-grade) in the Mehlville School District, a professional endeavor which she will bring to a close on June 30, 2004, in retirement; and

Whereas, an educator for more thirty-one years, Kala Eydman brought to the office of Director of Communication Arts a wealth of knowledge and experience which she garnered from earlier service as a Reading Specialist and Classroom Teacher with Mehlville schools and as a Classroom Teacher for five years with Saint Louis public schools; and

Whereas, during her tenure as Director of Communication Arts, Kala Eydman proved to be instrumental in implementing Reading Recovery and the Mehlville Balance Literacy Project for kindergarten through fifth-grade students; and

Whereas, Kala Eydman helped ensure the highest levels of professionalism and conduct in her chosen field of endeavor through her participation in the Suburban International Reading Association, Missouri State Council International Reading Association, and International Reading Association, all of which she served as a true leader, skilled resource, and knowledgeable member; and

Whereas, the beloved wife of William Eydman, Kala Eydman also is justifiably proud to be known as the loving mother of Bill and Debi and the wonderful grandmother of Will and Abby:
